Call for Research Proposals

The first Accounting History International Emerging Scholars' Colloquium

Certosa di Pontignano, Pontignano
Siena, Italy

16 - 17 July 2009

Organised in cooperation with the Department of Business and Social Studies, University of Siena, and supported by

SIDREA (The Italian Association of Accounting and Business Administration Professors),
SISR (The Italian Society of Accounting History)

This international forum is designed for emerging scholars of all ages and career stages, including doctoral degree students, new faculty and other emerging accounting researchers who have an interest in accounting's past and present and who seek directions and guidance in embarking upon and undertaking specific historical accounting research projects.

The inaugural forum will be held at the Certosa di Pontignano of the University of Siena which is located in Pontignano in Tuscany and is only a short distance from Siena. The forum will be led by Garry Carnegie and Brian West of the University of Ballarat, Australia who are the joint editors of Accounting History, the journal of the Accounting History Special Interest Group of the Accounting and Finance Association of Australia and New Zealand.

Other senior faculty members participating in the colloquium are also members of the Accounting History editorial team and will include Angelo Riccaboni, University of Siena, Italy; Nola Buhr, University of Saskatchewan, Canada; Christopher Napier, Royal Holloway, University of London, UK and Lúcia Lima Rodrigues, University of Minho, Portugal.

Research proposals and brief bibliographical details should be forwarded to Garry Carnegie by 31 March 2009: g.carnegie@ballarat.edu.au
